The BFG by Ronald Dahl was the book we read in class together. It was a story about a kind giant and a quiet girl called Sophie. Unfortunately not all the giants in the book were friendly. We made dream jars and dream catchers when we finished the story. We are all having good dreams only from now on in room 319.