

Book Clubs in 507

Students in 507 have begun Book Clubs. Each week they are to complete three reading reflections. The students then meet once a week and discuss their findings.

The students discuss their reading reflections and use of various comprehension strategies in Book Clubs. These strategies are predicting, questioning, summarising, clarifying, text connections, text features and prior knowledge.

Later this term we will be looking at analysing characters, settings and mood.

