

Science at Koonung Secondary College

Going to Koonung was a special treat as we walked through the gates of the secondary college. Our class had a special lesson with Mr Canning where we discovered the basics of acids and bases. We did two experiments measuring the pHs of different household liquids. By mixing different chemicals, the colours inside the test tube congregated to the different pHs.

Will, Matilda, Jack 510

