

LIBRARY LESSONS AT GPS

Foundation students have been learning all about the library and have been listening to stories, some new and some old time favourites.

The level five students are busy spreading kindness and learning how to stay safe online.

