
A Perceptual Motor Program has children working through a sequence of experiences to develop perception and motor outcomes along with memory training. Under the direction of a teacher, groups of children move from one station to the next covering a number of skills and activities that will assist the child in their early years of learning.