

Musica Viva presents

Mara! – Stories and Song Around the World

Earlier this year, Greythorn was visited by my Mara from Musica Viva, a group from Sydney that played music from all around the world. The performance was fantastic and the group encouraged their audience to participate in dancing, clapping patterns and singing. There were many interesting and unusual instruments such as the bouzouki, a Turkish lute, an electric double bass (one of only a few in Australia), a tapan, a two-sided drum, and Turkish spoons. They sounded wonderful and everyone had a great time. Altogether, it was a very enjoyable experience.
